3. Role of Compliance Officer

- 3.1 The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors but not less than once in a year.
- 3.2 The Compliance Officer shall assist designated persons in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct.

4. Preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis

Need to Know:

- (i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be shared/disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

5. Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- 5.1 No insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

i) The transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of 'Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information' of the Company and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained or accessed to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that sharing of such unpublished price sensitive information is in the best interests of the company.
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. The company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.;

ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of 'Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information' of the Company and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained or accessed to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that sharing of such unpublished price sensitive information is in the best interests of the company.
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

(iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

(iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

(v) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(vi) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with clause 6.

6. Trading Plans

6.1 Trading Plan:

A designated person shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for trading in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan (Annexure 1).

6.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the designated person earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

6.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violating the Regulations within one week from the date of receipt of Trading Plan. However, he shall be entitled to seek express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

6.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the designated person shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the designated person is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the designated person shall also not be allowed to trade in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

6.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

7. Trading Window and Window Closure

- (i) All Designated Persons shall trade in the Securities of the Company only in/during a valid trading period called Trading Window and shall not trade in the Company's Securities during the period when the Trading Window is closed.
- (ii) Closure of trading window period shall be determined by the Compliance Officer which will not be less than 7 days before the date of Board Meeting convened for considering any unpublished price sensitive information.
- (iii) In case of a Board Meeting convened for the purpose of financial results, the gap between clearance of accounts by Audit Committee and Board Meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

7.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

7.3 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

8. Pre-clearance of trades

When the trading window is open all designated persons who intend to trade in the securities of the Company valued at above Rs.10 lakhs (market value) or 10,000 shares whichever is less, should seek pre-clearance of the transaction. The pre-trading procedure shall be hereunder:

- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 2) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Persons intend to trade in, the details as to the depository with which he has a demat account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by Compliance Officer.
- (ii) An undertaking (Annexure 3) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following sub-clauses, as may be applicable, that:
 - (a) The Designated Person does not have any access or has not received “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) In case the Designated Person has access to or receives “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from trading in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) He/she has not contravened this code as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) He/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- (iii) All Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given (Annexure 4). The Designated Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the trade, the details of such trade with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure 5).
- (iv) If the order is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the employee/director must seek fresh pre-clearance for the trades to be executed.
- (v) All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of securities of the Company shall not enter into an contra trade/opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

Provided that this will not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned persons shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

- (vi) The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation for/waive off the restriction given in sub-clause v (above) in case of sale of securities in case of personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

9. Other Restrictions

9.1 The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a period of five years.

10. Reporting Requirements

Initial Disclosure

10.1 Every person on appointment as/ becoming a designated person shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on that date, to the Company in the prescribed format (Annexure 6) within seven days of such appointment as or becoming a designated person.

Continual Disclosures

10.2 Every designated person shall disclose to the Company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. ten lakhs.

The disclosure shall be made in the prescribed format (Annexure 7) within 2 trading days of: (a) the receipt of intimation of allotment of securities, or (b) the acquisition or sale of securities or voting rights, as the case may be.

Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- a) Immediate relatives
- b) Persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- c) Landline and Mobile numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation - The term "material financial relationship" shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer's annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

Designated Persons would be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

11. Disclosure by the Company to the Stock Exchange(s)

11.1 Within 2 trading days of the receipt of intimation under Clause 10.2, the Compliance Officer shall notify to all Stock Exchanges on which the Company is listed, the information received.

11.2 The Compliance officer shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate form given by the directors / officers / designated employees for a minimum period of five years.

12. Contravention of the code of conduct

12.1 Every designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code.

12.2 Any designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalized and appropriate action may be taken by the Company.

12.3 Designated Persons who violate the code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company which may include wage freeze, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, recovery, clawback of profits made from transactions/tradings violating the code etc.

12.4 Any violation of the code shall be reported to the Board.

12.5 In case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information, the Compliance Officer in consultation with the Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer, shall initiate appropriate inquiries and inform the Board promptly of such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries.

12.6 The Compliance officer may avail professional/third party services on need basis in this regard.

12.7 The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of Regulations.

12.8 The Audit Committee of the Company shall review compliance with the provisions of this Code and Regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

13. Discrepancies

In case of any discrepancies between this Code and the Regulations, the provisions in the Regulations shall prevail.

14. Supersession

The code supersedes the 'Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of Trading by Insiders' approved by the Board on April 23, 2015.
