The Company has formulated an automated process for identification of related party transactions in accordance with Section 188 of the Act and LODR. The Company has also formulated a process for determining whether the transaction is in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis. For this purpose, the Company seeks external professional opinion, as necessary.

c) Procedure for approval of related party transactions

(i) Approval of the Audit Committee

Companies Act 2013 requirements

As per section 177 of the Act, all transactions with related parties or any subsequent modification require approval of Audit Committee.

SEBI requirements:

All related party transactions require prior approval of the Audit Committee. However, the Company may obtain omnibus approval from the Audit Committee for such transactions, subject to compliances with the following conditions:

- The Audit Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with the Policy and such approval shall be applicable in respect of repetitive transactions;
- The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the company;
- The omnibus approval shall provide details of (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.

However, in case of related party transactions which cannot be foreseen and where the above details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval provided the value does not exceed Rs.1 crore per transaction;

- The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given;
- Such omnibus approval shall be valid for 1 year.

Provided that none of the above is for transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

(ii) Approval of the Board of Directors

Section 188 of the Act specifies certain kinds of transactions which, if they are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis, are placed before the Board for its approval.

In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with related parties are also placed before the Board for its approval:

- Transactions which may be in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which are as per the policy determined by the Board from time to time (i.e. value threshold and/or other parameters) require Board approval in addition to Audit Committee approval;
- Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the ordinary course of business and/or at arm's length basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for approval;
- Transactions which are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which in Audit Committee's view requires Board approval.
- Transactions meeting the materiality thresholds laid down Clause 5 of the Policy, which are intended to be placed before the shareholders for approval.

(iii) Approval of the Shareholders of the Company

Companies Act 2013 requirements

The circular issued by the MCA on 14 August 2014 has made amendments to the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 188. Based on the amendment, a special resolution where no related party interested in the contract/transaction can vote is required for non-arm's length transactions or transactions not in the ordinary course of business where the following transaction limits are exceeded:

- Sale or purchase of goods exceeds 10 percent of turnover or INR 1 billion, whichever is lower
- Sale or purchase of property of any kind, exceeds 10 percent of net worth or INR 1 billion, whichever is lower
- Leasing of property of any kind exceeds 10 percent of turnover or 10 percent of net worth or INR 1 billion, whichever is lower
- Availing or rendering of any service exceeds 10 percent of turnover or INR 500 million, whichever is lower
- Appointment to any office or place of profit in company, subsidiary or associate where the monthly remuneration > INR 250,000
- Remuneration for underwriting subscription of any securities or derivatives > one percent of net worth.

Applies to transaction or transactions to be entered into either individually or taken together with the previous transactions during a financial year.

These thresholds have to be evaluated for each category of transactions enlisted above for each related party.

LODR requirements

All the transactions with related parties exceeding the materiality thresholds, laid down in Clause 5 of the Policy are placed before the shareholders for approval.

For this purpose, all entities falling under the definition of related parties shall abstain from voting irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

Arm's Length Transaction means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.

Ordinary Course of Business means a transaction which is carried in the normal course of business envisaged in accordance of Memorandum of Association (MoA) and Articles of Association (AoA) as amended from time to time or historical practice with a pattern of frequency or common commercial practice or meets any other parameters/criteria as decided by the Board or Audit Committee.

7) DISCLOSURES

The Company shall disclose, in the Board's report, transactions prescribed in Section 188(1) of the Act with related parties, which are not in ordinary course of business or arm's length basis along with the justification for entering into such transaction.

In addition to the above, the Company shall also provide details of all related party transactions meeting the materiality threshold (laid down in Clause 5 of the Policy above) on a quarterly basis to the stock exchanges.

The policy shall be published on the Company's website www.tinnatrade.in

8) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY

In the event the Company becomes aware of a transaction with a related party that has not been approved in accordance with this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the related party transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the related party transaction. The Audit Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such related party transaction to the Audit Committee under this Policy and failure of the internal control systems, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a related party transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, discontinuation of the transaction or seeking the approval of the shareholders, payment of compensation for the loss suffered by the related party etc. In connection with any review/approval of a related party transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.
